

Master of Arts in Dance Education

Delivered Online + Summer Workshops in Greeley, CO

A Graduate Degree in Dance Education

Blend your teaching talent and your passion for dance into the Dance Education Masters Degree. In this program, you will be able to build on your teaching strategies, develop theoretical knowledge as it relates to teaching and learning, and develop your dance/movement skills. The program starts Fall 2014, consists of 36 credits and can be completed in 2 years plus Thesis completion.

Your courses will focus on:

- ✦ Dance/Movement Teaching Methods for K-12
- ✦ Choreography
- ✦ Creative Dance Improvisation
- ✦ Popular Dance Forms
- ✦ Dance Performance Production
- ✦ Dance History
- ✦ Designing Dance/Movement Assessments
- ✦ Movement and Dance to Teach Non-Dance Concepts and Ideas
- ✦ Using Movement/Dance in Interdisciplinary Learning
- ✦ Research Methods

Program Information
unconline.edu/DanceEd

Dance Education MA
Program Coordinator
christy.oconnellblack@unco.edu
970-351-4133

